WSFS Business Meeting Report

After formally receiving the results of the 2019 NASFiC and 2020 Worldcon site selection, the WSFS Business Meeting on Sunday concluded all remaining business today and adjourned sine die in memory of past Worldcon chairs Julian May and Milt Stevens, both of whom passed away in the past year.

A proposals to modify the Professional and Fan Artist Hugo Awards was referred to a special committee for further study. A proposal related to the deadlines associated with required reports from WSFS convention committees was referred to the Nitpicking & Flyspecking Committee for further clarification.

There will be no WSFS Business Meeting on Monday. The WSFS Mark Protection Committee will meet in Room 230 at 11:30 on Monday morning to elect new officers for the coming year and to consider other proposals. This meeting is open to all all attending members of Worldcon 76.

Lost Item at Party

If you left a bag containing convention treasures in one of the party rooms, please come to "Social" Ops, Fairmont South Tower, room 379 before 6:00 PM Sunday to claim it. You can call our room, and we can meet you downstairs outside the lobby if you don't have access to the hotel.

We will also be open at 10:00 AM Monday morning, if you can't get here in time on Sunday evening.

Free Wi-Fi

Don't forget, the Convention Center has free WiFi for all members! Search for "WickedlyFastWiFi" and connect.

Masquerade Photos

Our official staff photographers took candid and posed photos of the Masquerade participants and their performances. Whether you participated or enjoyed from the audience, you can find all of the photos on the Worldcon 76 website in our photo gallery.

Find the Masquerade photos and more from this weekend at:

Saturday Party Reports

The Locus 50th anniversary party started early and got the night off to a strong start with the famous Trombi punch and plenty of people lounging about discussing literature.

Colorful Drinks named for Ponies were the order of the day at the intimate and vibrantly decorated BABSCon party.

The Brotherhood Without Banners served spicy shots and sweet punch in a full suite mysteriously devoid of furniture. An appearance by George himself was the highlight of an excellent evening.

Sunday Parties

New Zealand is back with their "Southern Stars" party, in room 576, starting at 9:00 PM

CANSmof returns with their Montreal/Canadian SF party, in room 476

Arabian SF will debut tonight, in room 579

BABSCon will run for another night, in room 583
